

Hannah Whitcombe

Senior Staff Nurse, Emergency Medicine

Manchester, UK · 07700 900123 · hannah.whitcombe@example.com

PERSONAL PROFILE

Registered nurse with nine years in busy emergency departments, the last four as a senior staff nurse leading shifts of up to 14 staff. Calm in a crisis, careful with documentation and keen to teach newer colleagues. Seeking a ward sister post in acute care.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Northern Royal Infirmary

Senior Staff Nurse

Manchester

Mar 2022 to Present

- Lead the nursing team on shifts of up to 14 staff in a department seeing 350 patients a day
- Triage 40 to 50 patients a shift using the Manchester Triage System, with no recorded delays above target
- Mentor 6 newly qualified nurses a year through their preceptorship
- Cut handover errors by a third by introducing a structured SBAR checklist

St Anne's Hospital

Staff Nurse

Liverpool

Sep 2018 to Feb 2022

- Cared for patients with chest pain, sepsis and major trauma as part of the resuscitation team
- Completed Advanced Life Support and trauma nursing courses

Calderdale Community Health

Healthcare Assistant

Halifax

Jun 2015 to Aug 2018

- Supported 12 community patients a day with personal care and observations

EDUCATION

University of Salford

BSc (Hons) Adult Nursing, 2:1

Salford

2015 to 2018

- Dissertation: Early warning scores and sepsis recognition in emergency care

Bolton Sixth Form College

A levels: Biology (A), Chemistry (B), Psychology (B)

Bolton

2013 to 2015

KEY SKILLS

Clinical: Triage, resuscitation, venepuncture and cannulation, wound care, medicines administration

Qualifications: Advanced Life Support, Immediate Life Support, Safeguarding Level 3

Systems: Symphony, Epic, Datix

Languages: English, Urdu (conversational)

REGISTRATION

Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) registered, adult nursing (sample pin 00A0000A)

INTERESTS

Fell running, volunteering as a first aider at Saturday parkrun, baking

REFERENCES

Available on request